

18.03.2022 Conference Day 1

Time	Hall	Room I	Room II
	Major Keynotes	Presentations/ Workshops/Panels	Presentations/Workshops/Panels
9:30	Welcome Notes, Opening	ST and Cultural Challenges	ST “Specials” and integrative aspects
10:30 am	Keynote: Eckhard Roediger/GER: New developments in Schema Therapy: Towards a contextual and process-based approach
11:30 am – 2pm		Melanie Achermann/Switzerland: (presentation) Schema Therapy for Children, Adolescents and Families – Overview over the upcoming curriculum at RITR Remco van der Wijngaart/Netherlands: (presentation) Schema therapy and the COVID-19 pandemic	Alp Karaosmanoglu/Turkey: (WS, 1,5 hrs) Fair Enough or Not: The role of cognitive ability to process “fairness” in Anxiety Disorders

		Cristina Sterie/Bulgaria: Working with the Parent Mode–When the (inner) Parent needs reparenting (Schema Therapy and Transactional Analysis)
2-3pm	Lunchbreak
3 pm	Schema Therapy and Cultural Challenges Ahmed Hanafi/EG: (WS/Panel,2 hrs): How European can, want to or should we be? Implementing Schema Therapy in Egypt and the Arab Speaking Countries – Challenges and Opportunities	Schema Therapy and Cultural Challenges Lubna Alfasfos/ GER , Jordan: (Presentation) Early Maladaptive Schemas and Their Correlations with Psychiatric Symptoms and Personality Accentuations for Palestinian Students Hunaida Isead /Hind Zadeh/Palestine: (WS/Panel 2 h) Where and how it all began: Schema Therapy in other Arab countries - the example of Palestine
5.pm	Keynote: Jeffrey Young/US: (online) Conference Keynote of the ST Founder
6:30	Celebration for Graduates of the first Basic Curriculum 40 hrs (4 groups, 80 part.)		